moving into bill debate at that point in time. We will have an agenda out in plenty of time so that there is fair warning of where we will be going. The 14th of January is the last day, it is the tentative last day for receipt of bills by Bill Drafting. Then the committee hearings will begin on January the 18th. On January 20 will be the last day of bill introduction, and the deadline for priority bill designation is on February 17. Now, if you are like me, I wouldn't have written all that down as I was announcing it, but to give you a flavor. I will put a memo out. It will be in your box. It will also be on your computers and we will make that public, yet today. But I did want to give you some flavor of where...we will be doing. Again, we will not be having bill debate the rest of this week. We will start at 10:00 a.m. each day. At this point, we will move to the introduction of new bills. Members, if I could have your attention for one moment please, members. (Gavel) Thank you. We have a new member of the Legislature that I would like to introduce to you. Senator Ray Aguilar from the 35th Legislative District. Senator, welcome to the Nebraska Legislature. Good luck. Mr. Clerk, new bills.

CLERK: Mr. President, new bills. (Read LBs 884-897 by title for the first time. Legislative Journal pages 126-128.)

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Members, if you do have bills, we'd like to have them turned in, in the next half an hour.

EASE

SENATOR CUDABACK PRESIDING

SENATOR CUDABACK: Mr. Clerk, do you have items?

ASSISTANT CLERK: Mr. President, more new bills. (Read LBs 898-923 by title for the first time. Legislative Journal pages 128-133.)

EASE

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Senator Robak would like to announce that the following guest she has visiting today from Columbus, Dr. Ron Klutman, who is also serving as the
